

ABSTRACT

The structure and scope of work. Explanatory note diploma project consists of six chapters, contains 9 figures, 18 tables, 2 applications, 4 sources.

Diploma project dedicated to the development of WEB-service access to your accounts. The main objectives of system development is the creation of service to provide users with easy access to data for entree to various web resources by placing this information on the developed system.

Enable users to evaluate service data set and add new ones. Creating a distinction between users web service for assessment of their contribution to the system of representation and access to more reliable data.

Under the terms described formulation of the problem.

In the information provision described input, output.

In the software and hardware are sequence diagram and description of reports.

Technological section provides a detailed user manual testing process and system.

WEB-SERVICE,ACCOUNTS, ACCESS, EXCHANGE, RATE.